

James B. Martino

SEVENTY

Elder James B. Martino was sustained as a General Authority Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on April 4, 2009. At the time of his call, he had been serving as a member of the Sixth Quorum of the Seventy in the North America Southwest Area. Elder Martino has served as a member and President of the Central America Area Presidency and as a member and President of the Europe East Area Presidency. He is currently serving at Church headquarters as an Assistant Executive Director in the Missionary Department and as President of the North America Southeast Area.

Elder Martino received a bachelor of science degree in business from Brigham Young University in 1974. After graduation he began working for Russell-Newman, Inc., an apparel company. He was president and CEO of the company from 1989 to 2000. He served as chairman of the company from 2003 until his retirement in 2009.

Since joining the Church in 1968, Elder Martino has served in numerous Church callings, including full-time missionary in the Guatemala-El Salvador Mission, stake executive secretary, stake Young Men president, seminary teacher, bishop, stake president and mission president. James Boyd Martino was born in Denton, Texas, on March 28, 1951. He married Jennie Marie Barron in August 1973. They are the parents of five children.

THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

J. Vaun McArthur

SEVENTY

Elder J. Vaun McArthur was assigned by the First Presidency of the Church to coordinate the open house and dedication of the Baton Rouge Temple early in 2019.

Elder McArthur graduated from Kansas State University as a doctor of philosophy in biology. He also taught general biology and environmental science.

Elder McArthur currently teaches ecology at the University of Georgia. He has also served as the senior scientist at the Savannah River Ecology Laboratory since 1985. He designs, analyzes and publishes scientific studies on the ecology of various organisms, and he also supervises graduate students.

He has served the Church in various capacities including bishop, branch president, high councilor, stake mission president and stake president. He currently serves as an Area Seventy.

J. Vaun McArthur and his wife, Jackie, are the parents of four children and currently reside in Aiken, South Carolina.

THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

Kevin R. Duncan

SEVENTY

Elder Kevin R. Duncan was sustained as a General Authority Seventy of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on April 3, 2010. At the time of his call, he had been serving as a member of the Fifth Quorum of the Seventy in the Utah South Area. He previously served as President of the Central America Area. He is currently serving at Church headquarters as Executive Director in the Temple Department.

Elder Duncan received a bachelor's degree in accounting, a master's degree in taxation, and a juris doctor from Brigham Young University in 1991. He began his career as a tax attorney in Seattle, Washington. In 1996 he founded CaseData Corporation, from which he retired in 2005.

Elder Duncan has served in a number of Church callings, including full-time missionary in Chile, temple ordinance worker, Church-service missionary as the associate international legal counsel in South America, President of the Chile Santiago North Mission, and Area Seventy.

Kevin Read Duncan was born in Ogden, Utah, on October 6, 1960. He married Nancy Elizabeth Smart in June 1986. They are the parents of five children.

THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS